Union of Forces Planned by Colom bian Insurgents and Venezuela Regulars-Defeat of Castro's Men Was Decisive.

Willemstad, Island of Curacon, Oct. 1. Via Haytlen Cable-Advices received here y mail from Maracaibo, under date of ptember 28, say Venezuela is protecting he Guajira frontier by re-enforcements, in expedition composed of about 1,500 reuits from La Vela de Coro, on the Gulf Coro, and Merida, with Vicente Sanchez n command, left here to-day for some soint near Guajira, wisness they will probbly move inland towards the frontier. It is believed that the forces of Davila fler their disastrous defeat September 14 wandered to the mountains, pursued by In-dians and Colombians. Eventually Davila with five companions, succeeded in reach ng Fort San Carlos, thirty miles north ing Fort San Carlos, thirty miles north of Maracalbo, a Venezuelan base and political prison, whence he asked that re-enforce-ments be sent to rescue his command, re-ported to be in distress and danger from the Indians inhabiting Guajira, who, under the leadership of their Cacique, Juan Do-lores, are fighting on the side of the Co-lombian Government.

Clodomir and Juan Castillo, the Colombian Liberal leaders, appear to be at Trienta, en the Colombian side of Guajira, with followers estimated to number from 500 to 2,00 men. It is reported, although without valid reason for belief, that the forces under Cas-tille and Davila's men, if rescued from their predicament, and the Sanchez expedition will attempt to unite or co-operate in a movement upon La Hacha, where Colombia appears to have about 200 men under the leadership of Avama. It is more conservatively thought that Venezuela will not as Letters received here from Tachira are to the effect that General Uribe-Uribe is collecting and manipulating his forces in a small way, but no action of importance is being taken by him. A creditable report received here is to the effect that 1,290 Colombian Conservative troops are at a hamlet called Simmulca, about three days' march from Maraesiho.

MAYOR ON BENCH IN POLICE COURT.

Attends Session in Old City Hall to Familiarize Himself With Its Proceedings.

Mayor Wells visited the old City Hall Police Court yesterday morning and occu-pled a seat on the bench with Judge W. Jeff Pollard. The Mayor's reason for attending court was to familiarize himself with the proceedings and to study the people who appear there. Forty-five cases were tried in the Mayor's hour and a half. Mr. Wells arrived with Judge Pollard at 9 o'clock and remained until 1939, when he went to his office in the new City Hall, to find many officials the new City Holl, to find many officials and efficients waiting for him.

"My opinion is," the Mayor said, "that harmonious action between all branches of the municipal government must be fostered in order to achieve the best results. The police courts are an important branch of the municipal machinery, and they should be in as close relation with the administrative departments as the offices in the City Hall.
"Of course, I cannot express any spe-presence, the proceedings consuming as trailve departments as the omices in the City Hall.

"Of course, I cannot express any specific impressions concerning my visit. If I should discover anything that, in my opinion, might need correction or change, my suggestions or actions would have to be official. In general, however, I will say that I believe the relations between all municipal departments, including polica courts, should be intimate."

Judge Pollard is acting in the City Hall Police Court Instead of Judge Sidener, who is reported to be ill. Mayor Wells has appointed Judge Pollard to preside in several courts while the regular judges were absent on vacations.

PLANNING KANSAS EXHIBIT.

World's Fair Commissioners Organize and Discuss Work.

SEPUBLIC SPECIAL. Topeka, Kas., Oct. 1.—The Kansas Louisiana Purchase Fair Commission met here and organized to-day.

State Senator John C. Carpenter heads the ticipated, on account of his leadership in carrying through the Fair Commission bill and appropriation. The official staff of the commission is as follows:

President, Senator J. C. Carpenter of Chanute; vice president, Senator J. C. Morrow, Haddam; treasurer, Senator R. T. Simons, Caidwell; secretary, Charles Luiling, Wichita, B. P. Waggener, the Democratic member, is the only one who holds no of-

ce. The commission lunched with Governor The commission lunched with Governor Stanley at the Executive Mansion and heard his bleas and views about the Kansas building and exhibit, which must not exceed the $15.00 appropriation.

Governor Stanley wants plenty of recelving room in the Kansas building. Kansas had no building at Buffalo, he said, and the lack of a place for Kansans to meet and rest was painfully noticeable. If it were feasible Governor Stanley would favor several Louislana Purchase States getting together and petting up one grand building jointly. It could be done at half the cost to each State that separate buildings for each would foot up. Separate reception-rooms could be put in, one for each State, and still maintain separate State headquarters.

EAST ST. LOUIS. LEVELLING WAIVED EXAMINATION.

Winstanley Clerk Bound Over to the Grand Jury,
H. E. Levelling, clerk of the Village
Board of Winstaniev Park, charged in a warrant with falsifying the record of the meeting of the board of September 13, meeting of the board of September 13, waived a preliminary examination before Justice of the Peace J. H. Wyatt yesterday afternoon and was held to the Grand Jury in the sum of $1,000. Henry J. Drummond, president of the Village Board, swore to the complaint. The direct charge is malfeasance in office.

It is alleged in the warrant that on the night of September 13, at a meeting of the Village Board, a list of names and judges of election appointed at that meeting was given Clerk Levelling to incorporate in the minutes of the meeting. At the next meeting other members of the Village Board who were on the side of Levelling appointed who were on the side of Levelling appointed those appointed at the previous meeting. President Drummond protested, but in value. Then he swore out the warrant charging Levelling with malfeasance in office. A large crowd was present in the Jastice's office yesterday afternoon, expecting sensational developments if the case was tried.

Alberta Lamb's Father Had Released Interest in Fortune and Court Will Not Overrule.

docket of the Jersey County Circuit Court yesterday by Judge J. A. Creighton in the suit for partition and assignment of home stead and dower of Grace Lamb against Mary A. Lamb and others.

Grace Lamb is the widow of David K. Lamb, and Mary A. Lamb is the widow of John Lamb, a brother of David Lamb. David K. Lamb, who was a resident of Elsah, lied several months ago. The two brothers had been almost inseparable companions and were the last of a large and prominent family, who were active in the early development of the State of Illinois. John Lamb who lived south of Jerseyville, became ill immediately after his brother's death and died a few days later. His death was said to have been caused by grief over his brother's taking off. Both brothers were in affluent circum stances, and John Lamb was left a considerable fortune by his brother, David. When the settlement of the estate was attempted er of John Lamb, could not be determined by the family. Alberta Lamb was the daughter of Melvin Lamb, who was drowned at the Piasa Chautauqua several years ago. Before his death Meivin Lamb signed a release to his interests in his father's estate for advances and other considerations pre-

In the settlement of John Lamb's share of the estate of his brother, David, however, the attorneys for the granddaughter, Alberta, claimed she was entitled to an interest, as the release of Melvin Lamb, the father, had been given without regard or knowledge of the additional accrument from the testate of the brother, David. The point was strongly contested by a number of the leading attorneys at the Jersey County bar. Judge Creighton decided against the granddaughter, ruling that the release signed by Melvin Lamb, the father, was still binding. The court also entered a decree for the partition and assignment of homestead and dower among the remaining heirs. dower among the remaining heirs.

Alton Wants Man Who Did Not Return Livery Rig.

A man hired a horse and buggy at the Charles Selbold livery stable on Monday morning for the purpose, he said of going to Brighton. Monday evening he failed to return and telegrams were sent out in all directions by the Alton officials yesterday in the livery stable of E A. Meyers at Jerseyville.

Instead of going to Brighton, the man drove direct to Jerseyville, arriving there shortly after 1 o'clock, After putting the horse up at the Meyers stable he went to the Commercial Hotel, but did not register. Later in the day he disappeared, and was not seen until late Monday night, when he loarded a northbound Chicago and Alton train, purchasing a ticket for Roodhouse.

Monday afternoon a new overcoat belonging to Attorney E. J. Vaughn was taken from the lobby of the Commercial Hotel, and the Jerseyville authorities yesterday were trying to couple the disappearance of were trying to couple the disappearance of the overcoat with that of the stranger.

E. H. O'Grady, secretary of the Amalgamated Glass Workers' Association of Alton, yesterday issued notices that a strike had been ordered at the piant of the Illinois Glass Company. The association is composed of packers and general laborers at the plant.

The union was organized last May with about 100 members. For some months the members have been making an effort to secure recognition as a union from the officers of the glass company, but they claim so far they have not succeeded. In the call issued for a strike, Secretary O'Grady states that there is no financial consideration involved, simply a matter of recognition. The order to strike does not affect the blowers, and most of the men composing the union are not at present at work at the plant.
